The first system of music consists of a treble clef staff and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The time signature is 4/4. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The treble clef staff contains whole rests for the first four measures. The grand staff contains piano accompaniment, with the bass line featuring eighth notes and rests.

The second system features a vocal line in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the grand staff. The lyrics are: "1. Here is a lit-tle sto-ry that I made up, so let's make be-lieve. 2. The con-ver-sa-tion wasn't go-ing no-where 'til I let down my hair." The piano accompaniment includes chords and moving lines in both hands.
